HAWTHORNE'S THIRD MEETING.

Racing was resumed at Hawthorne yesterday afternoon under favorable conditions. The track was slow from recent rainfall, but it was improving as the hours went by and, as it was, afforded good and safe footing. This slight drawback was amply compensated for by the deliciously cool and bracing atmosphere and the large attendance. The racing was of a character to bring enjoyment to turf-patronizing people and was dispatched promptly and in good order.

Long shots were very much in evidence, and during the entire afternoon but two favorites, Algareta and Serrano, won. Albertvale, at some stages in the betting at 50 to 1, captured the first event, and Fatherland at 50 to 1, was first past the post in the third.

None of the finishes was close. The scratches in the different races were plentiful and the fields as a rule small.

Algareta's smart performance in the fourth event, which was at three-quarters was by far the feature of the day. This filly, with 105 pounds up, had Benneville, 110, and Goebel, 104, to contend with. The latter was carrying one pound over. The ring as well as the public have a lot of respect for this filly and consequently she was made an odds-on favorite from the outset. During the early stages of the betting there was 4 to 5 offered against her, but 3 to 5 was about the ruling price. Benn ville and Goebel were each backed by their stables. The trio left the post together at the first attempt and down the backstretch Benneville was sent to the front in an effort to stop Algareta. He set a terrific pace considering the condition of the track. The first quarter was stepped in 25 seconds and the half in 49½ seconds, then Benneville said "take it," and Algareta, going to the front at her leisure, won by two lengths as she pleased. Benneville beat Goebel five lengths for the place.

Nine were entered in the steeplechase and they all went. It was won by one of the recent arrivals from Canada, My Valentine. She, coupled with Tricotrin as J. Meagher's entry, opened at 2½ to 1, but receded to 6 to 1. N. Ray rode My Valentine and he displayed good judgment. He laid away with her the first half of the journey, but when he saw the pacemakers, Princess Murphy and Gypceiver faltering, he went right on to the front, and, by forcing the pace, had his contenders wobbling before the last fence was cleared. My Valentine had to be hand ridden at the end to stall off the strong rush Zuffall came with on the flat.

Boanerges made his initial appearance at this style of racing, but refused to jump, and was beaten off all the way. Nevertheless, Johnson took the rogue over all the fences, which was a good schooling for him. It was also Princess Murphy's first appearance, and she made a good showing.

On paper the last race seemed like a "moral" for Serrano and 4 to 5, which was his opening price, were tempting. There was nothing to the race, but Serrano, when Crowhurst cut him loose, Silver Tone set the pace and led until well into the homestretch, but when Crowhurst got ready with Serrano he shot to the front like a flash and won running away. Serrano is a good racehorse and up to beating better ones than he met yesterday.

Albertvale's win was a clever one and over it handicapper Ed O'Malley made quite a cleaning up. He is always on the lookout for long shots and after discovering that the track was quite soft down the backstretch and exactly to Albertvale's liking, he got on at 50 to 1 straight, 20 to 1 for the place and 8 to 1 to show. O'Malley is an extraordinarily good "rooter" and when the horse went to the front on the stretch turn he almost raised the roof from the stand with his howling. Bon Jour was an 8 to 5 favorite for the race but the best he could do was to get second place and he had to be hard ridden to get that.

That good, consistent filly Merito, giving away chunks of weight to every thing in the second race including Avenstoke, won and won in an impressive manner. The talent did not fancy Merito and her price drifted from 2½ to 1 to 4 to 1, but at post time she was backed down to 3 to 1. Avenstoke was made favorite at odds on but under a bad ride he ran a bad race and did not finish in the first three. Merito, despite her heavy impost, was always near the front and galloping over Erla d'Or on call in the stretch, she won as she pleased.

The mile and a half race was marked by occurrences that produced a false result. Arlington forced the pace and was raced in front until he had enough and retired. Tentons got a bad ride and Mayme M. M. was badly interfered with on the far turn. Fatherland was the only one that had a smooth journey and he plodded along at about the same gait all way and eventually won easily. Mayme M. M. was the best horse, and but for the interference on the far turn she would have walked in.

RACING NEAR CINCINNATI.

"Latonia is destined to have the first whack at the fall racing game, and the bangtails will not go to the post at local tracks until October 7, on which date Latonia will inaugurate a nineteen-day meeting," says the Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune. "The management of the Newport track has evidently decided to allow Latonia to have a free field up to the latter part of October, when the Queen City track will be opened for at least a thirty-day meeting. It was originally intended by Frank Fowler, the manager of the Newport track, to give a meeting, beginning September 2, of twenty-seven days' duration. Since Fowler has been campaigning on the Canadian Circuit, where he has an interest in the syndicate betting ring operating these tracks, he has evidently reconsidered his plans, as his representative, Roger Sullivan, who is now here, says Newport will follow Latonia this fall.

"Latonia and Newport at the present time occupy opposite positions in their catering for public favor. Latonia has renounced the syndicate betting ring as a means of giving a race meeting, while Newport still clings to the 'strangle hold.' Latonia's spring meeting, while a success artistically, was not so financially, inasmuch as an open betting ring was operated and the revenue from it was not sufficient to meet the daily expenses of the track. The Latonia people, however, grimly stuck to the game—even though a losing one—and played out the string. It was demonstrated that a racetrack hereabouts can be run with an open betting ring, but hardly without some loss to its promoters. Latonia made a gallant effort to revive the sport and succeeded in winning back a number of substantial devotees of the game. With a let-up of the races for nearly three months on local tracks, and Latonia the first to have a chance at the fall game, there should be some first-class turf contests at the Kenton County track in October. The Newport management exhibits good taste when it decided to follow Latonia this fall. Latonia, by virtue of its efforts to restore the turf to something of its former standing, is entitled to a free field.

"There is little doubt but that the Newport track will be operated with a syndicate betting ring this fall. One of the best reasons for thinking so is the determination to have the last chance at the racing game before the snow flies. After Latonia giving a meeting in the spring with an open ring it would not help the Newport cause to follow with a syndicate ring, especially as Latonia has declared for an open ring again in the fall. It is common sense business judgment for Newport to come in at the tail end of the game after the free-for-all betting ring has been shut up for the season. Hence, no doubt, the determination to race at Newport in the chilly month of November. By the rules of the Turf Congress Newport will not be able to race after December 1. Racing in the months of December, January and February is barred by the Turf Congress, so there is no likelihood of Newport continuing its meeting after the last day of November has fled. The track will have some thirty odd days of racing, and this is quite sufficient, especially if the syndicate betting ring is in operation.

"Secretary Ed Hopper is busy these piping hot days preparing for the fall meeting at Latonia, at which some of the best stakes in the west will be contested. The prospects for Latonia are exceedingly bright, and the coming meeting in October should be the best in the past three years. The betting ring will be open to all bookmakers. Bookies from St. Louis and Chicago may be expected, especially from the latter place, as Charley Bollinger, one of the Latonia owners, is in the Windy City and is looking out for the interests of his track. From the east may be expected some of the best stables in the country, especially as it will be time for the better western stables to begin their annual pilgrimage home, and of course that means a stop-off at Latonia in a very laudable effort to earn feed money for the winter. Secretary Hopper expects his stakes to fill well, and some of the entries are from the best eastern and western stables."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The stewards of the Jockey Club met at Brighton Beach Saturday afternoon, at which meeting John Dancer was ruled off the turf under Rule 162, Section 1, of the Racing Rules, for corrupt practice in offering a bribe to a jockey. The licenses of jockeys R. Sullivan and R. Williams were revoked. The suspension from riding imposed upon jockey Winnie J. O'Connor by the stewards of the Brighton Beach meeting was confirmed and extended until August 26.

Dancer, who is about thirty-five years old, was formerly a valet to the late Andy McCarthy, who was killed while riding a race at Morris Park.

R. "Tiny" Williams rode Maximo Gomez when that usually true running horse nearly knocked his only competitor, Marsian, down in a race at Brighton on July 15. Maximo Gomez was at 3 to 10 and Marsian at 3 to 1. The favorite was disqualified, and somebody in the ring reaped a harvest. Williams had a great reputation as a jockey.

Sullivan who only came east this season has been guilty of much rough riding, frequently endangering the lives of his fellow jockeys. He was not accounted even fair in the saddle.

The trainers, John Croker, William Becket, C. H. Douglas and the jockey, Frederick Barkerholder, were restored to all privileges under the rules. The applications of trainers Richard Baker, Walter S. House, George W. Perry and John McAuley for reinstatement were laid over for further consideration.

The treasurer was authorized to forward a check for $100 to Mrs. Martha O'Leary, wife of former jockey Thomas O'Leary, and to charge the same to the fund for disabled jockeys.

UNSPORTSMANLIKE TURFMEN.

From all accounts the stables at Saratoga are chock full of horses. The purses hung up daily by the association are liberal. Yet up to date the fields of starters have been scandalously light. That this is so is clearly the fault of selfish owners who are unwilling to take a chance unless they have, in their own minds, at least the conviction their horses can win. In the meantime they are perfectly willing to enjoy the hospitality of the club whose interests they are damaging. It is unfortunately true that there are by far too many horse-owners who are in no sense sportsmen. How such men can affect the fortunes of a great race and in consequence of a jockey club was correctly stated by Turf, Field and Farm when it said recently:

"In the Brighton Cup, two miles and a quarter, run at Brighton Beach on Saturday, July 29, of the nineteen eligible starters only Bangle, Don d'Oro and Latson went to the post as contestants for the rich prize. In the size of the field the public was disappointed, and as there were three moneys, the Brighton Beach Racing Association could justly feel that it was giving away $5,000 without practically a contest. The race between Bangle and Don d'Oro for over a mile was interesting, but Bangle showed such superior distance stamina that he galloped home an easy winner in the fast time of 3:56½, while Latson trailed all the way behind, with no opponent for third money. Since the inauguration of the Brighton Cup in 1897 the field has never been larger than three, which is poor encouragement to the liberality of the racing association in putting up big money for an event which should rank in importance as one of the great fixtures of the American turf. The only starters in 1897 were The Friar, Sulny Slope and Ben Brush, and the time was 3:56½. In 1898 Hamburg, Ogden and Howard Mann were the contestants and the time was 4:02½, and the race practically a walkover for Mr. Marcus Daly, who owned Hamburg and Ogden, that finished first and second. Other rich stakes of this as well as other seasons have gone the same way as the Brighton Cup, yet the horse owners' wail is for an increase in the value of races. While the receipts of the racing associations in this vicinity would warrant their putting up more money, it cannot be expected that they should give big money for virtual walkovers. In such races as the Brighton Cup, Lawrence Realization and other valuable events for three-year-olds and upward, it would be well to insert a condition where there are three moneys that at least six starters should go to the post. This would insure a contest for each place in the race, the patrons of racing would be better satisfied and the association would get value received for their outlay."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Captain Sam Brown of Christiansburg, Ky., has sold to Mr. W. C. Whitney the chestnut mare Lady Agnes (dam of Dominus and Kitchen) with her suckling colt by Hanover. Lady Agnes was foaled in 1887 and is by St. Blaise—Carita, by The Ill Used. Carita is the dam of Carina (dam of St. Carlo, Prince of Monaco, etc.) as well as King Crab, King Cadmus, Gold Fox, etc. Lady Agnes is in foal to Pirate of Penzance.

Her suckling colt is a superb individual, a number of good judges stating that they believed he was the finest colt in Kentucky. Captain Brown, who has owned as sucklings such colts as Hamburg, is very enthusiastic on this

colt. "Hanover is dead," says he, "but he lives again in this colt. He is a perfect picture of his sire—color, marks, conformation, even to the rabbit's foot, which all will remember in Hanover, and the snip on the left nostril."—
The Thoroughbred Record.

There is a project on foot for the running of a great special race at Sheepshead Bay during the fall meeting. The horses that will probably go in the race are Ethelbert, Admiration, Martimas, Approval and possibly Jean Beraud. The distance is to be a mile and a quarter, colts to carry 122 pounds and fillies 117 pounds.
With either Jean Beraud or Admiration to start against the other three it is certain that the race would be a very interesting one, and prove a great drawing card. There seems to be a good prospect for getting up the race. Owners approached in regard to the matter have expressed willingness to take part.

Jockey George Odom, through his father, has signed a contract to ride for W. C. Whitney for 1900, 1901 and 1902. The boy will receive $10,000 a year, and in addition $25 for every winning mount and $10 for every losing mount. When he is not riding for Mr. Whitney his mounts will be selected by his father. In little Odom Mr. Whitney has secured not only the best lightweight jockey in America, but a boy whom even the wildest ranters against turf dishonesty admit is above reproach. It is said that Mr. Whitney will take personal charge of his racing interests next season. He has always been fond of horses and has his own ideas about their management.

Ed Peters lost his good three-year-old colt Hold On Friday morning. He was stricken with the blind staggers. While coming through the stretch he suddenly made a dash for the rail, and before the boy could stop him crashed into the furlong pole, breaking his neck, and he died shortly afterward. The boy was sent hurling through the air, and for a time it looked as if he would die. After a time he came around and was found to have escaped serious injury.

BIG YEARLING SALE.

Monday evening, August 21, promptly at 7:30,
at Union Stock Yards, seventy-five yearling colts and fillies, the property of Runnymede, Spendthrift, Hartland, Leonatus, Faustiana and Melbourne Studs and several individual owners, will be sold. These yearlings comprise some of the best from these representative Kentucky and Missouri breeders, and include brothers and sisters to many first-class turf performers. The list of relations is too long to enumerate here, but catalogues can be had by addressing Woodard & Shanklin, Lexington, Ky., under whose management the sale will be held.

AMERICAN RACING RULES OF 1899.

The 1899 edition of the American Racing Rules, published by Secretary E. C. Hopper of the American Turf Congress, is out and can be sent by mail to any address from this office for 25 cents. The book contains the racing rules as amended to January 1, racing Colors as registered and betting rules, and a digest in index form which is a guide to all the books' contents

SALE OF OAKWOOD YEARLINGS.

Saturday, August 12, at Hawthorne paddock, promptly at 12 o'clock, Woodard & Shanklin will sell the Oakwood Stud yearlings, property of Messrs. Applegate & McMeekin. They include the get of Fonso, Lamplighter, Wadsworth, Victory, Prince Royal, Badge and Slei-pner. It is a well known fact that Oakwood Stud sends out no maidens, nearly all their matrons being famous producers, and it is better than even money that many winners will come from this bunch.

RACING AT LEXINGTON.

The Lexington horse show, fair and carnival, to be held during the dates of August 8 to 12, will beyond any doubt be one of the greatest entertainments ever produced south of the Ohio river, and in connection with their most liberal premium list for live stock, they offer several purses of $150 to $200 each for running horses.
Horsemen should take advantage of this opportunity to capture some "easy money" and after the meeting freshen up their horses upon the abundant bluegrass at that place before the beginning of the fall meetings around Cincinnati.
For catalogues, conditions, etc., address E. W.
Shanklin, Secretary, Lexington, Ky.

Winner—B. h. by Albert—Montvale.
Post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving but with something left; the next three were under keen pressure. The track was just soft enough to suit Albertvale and over it he was a good horse. Everything considered his price was out of line. Bon Jour got a flying start but for some unknown reason dropped back into a bad place down the backstretch. He was close to the rails and saved all the ground possible but Mathews had to be very careful to prevent being shut off. The horse was hampered more or less during the journey. In fact, he never had clear sailing until the stretch was reached. Marcato had the worst kind of racing luck. He was badly interfered with and obliged to pull up on the first turn. Kenmore Queen lost a lot of ground by making a wide stretch turn. The filly bore out so it was not the boy's fault. Tappan stopped all of a sudden after going three-quarters.
Scratched—13774 Warren Point, 103; (13858) Molo, 110; 13858 Harry Thoburn, 103; (13858) Alabaster, 105; 13811 Glenoid, 103; 13844 Elidad, 106; 13880 Mary Kinsella, 103.
Overweights—Hermoso, 1 pound; Albertvale, 1.
Albertvale, place, 10 to 1; show, 4 to 1. Bon Jour, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Marcato, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. f. by Wadsworth—Modjeska.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second, third and fourth doing their best. Merlio again showed her quality. This is an extra good filly and is most consistent. Mathews rode her cleverly, and the filly held the race safe all the way. Erla d'Or may have been a trifle short. At any rate she hung a bit in the last furlong. Strathbroeck finished very strong and ran a good race. Mark him to win soon. Avenstock was poorly ridden and was bumped and jostled often. This certainly was not his race. He can beat both Strathbroeck and Erla d'Or. The race was always between the first four.
Scratched—13859 Caviar, 108; 13859 Dick Furber, 103; 13839 Lomond, 108; 13650 Lew Kraft, 108; 13689 Clara Woolley, 105; 12770 Dr. Tarr, 105.
Corrected weights—Tommy O'Brien, 108; Santi Ague, 105; Jessie Woods, 105.
Merlio, place, evens; show, out. Erla d'Or, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Strathbroeck, show, evens. Avenstock, place, out.

Winner—B. c. by Falsetto—Pembria.
Off at the first break to a fair start. Won in a mild drive; the next two were driving hard. Fatherland's win was a lucky one and a scratch. As the race was run Mayme M. M. was far the best. She, while making her move on the far turn was cut off and obliged to pull up. She is a slow going filly that cannot stand interference and this cost her the race. From the head of the stretch home the filly made up a lot of ground. Gun Metal finished stoutly. Hub Prather and Arlington both quit badly under pressure at the end. Teutons' speed perhaps was dulled by his race in the mud at Harlem Saturday. Boland did not ride him any too well.
Overweights—Mayme M. M., 4 pounds.
Corrected weights—Mayme M. M., 78; Gun Metal, 99.
Fatherland, place, 15 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Mayme M. M., place, 7 to 10; show, out. Gun Metal, show, out. Teutons, place, evens; show, out.

13841	GOEBEL	3	104	3	3	3	3	3	3	Everett	E C Blum	5	5	3	3

Winner—Br. f. by Bramble—Caledonia.
Off at the first break to a good start. Won very easily; the other two were whipping. Algareta was never fully extended. She galloped Benneville into submission in the first half and then cantered for the remainder of the journey. She is a grand mare at present. No matter how fast a pace is set she is always right there. Benneville ran one of his good races. Goebel did better than he did in his last race and the chances are that he will improve from this one. He is a very speedy horse but has had a long let-up which seems to have temporarily impaired his speed.
Scratched—13815 Rosa L., 95; 13408 Montgomery, 107.
Overweights—Goebel, 1 pound.

Winner—Ch. f. by Tenny—Miss Nailer.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily. The next three were driving hard. My Valentine is a good fencer, was best ridden and won strictly on his merits. Ray rides an excellent race through the field. He has the knack of helping a horse when he comes to an obstruction. Zufallig ran gamely. Kidd whipped him through the last three-quarters of a mile. Clifton B. seems to be improving at this game. Considering it was Princess Murphy's initial attempt over the sticks she ran finely and fenced to perfection. Boanerges seemed to sulk. His showing was a disappointment. So was Laura May's. Gypceiver was going well in hand when he bolted. Had McHugh kept him in he would probably have been a contender.
Corrected weights—Boanerges, 148; Gypceiver, 151.
Entry, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Zufallig, place, 3 to 1; show, 7 to 5. Clifton B., show, 4 to 1. Boanerges, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Ch. h. by Fonso—Janet.
Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won very easily. There was considerable action behind the winner. Serrano was far the best and in a soft spot. Everything considered his price was a royal one. The track was a trifle deep down the backstretch and consequently a handicap to him. Crowhurst, however, did not urge the horse to keep up, but when the good footing was reached on the far turn he passed the horses in front of him as though they were stationary. Silver Tone had more speed than he did in his last race at Harlem. The distance was a trifle too far for him. Kasteine finished with a tremendous rush. Mark her for early action on a fast track. Three Bars tired badly. So did Jim McClevey. Plantain's race was not to the mark.
Scratched—13840 Pittfall, 102; 13840 Sunburst, 105; 13500 Chauncey Fisher, 102; 12961 The Bondman, 95; 13863 Heman, 92; 13840 Joe Clark, 105; 13774 Lost Time, 95; 13855 Flammation, 105; 13815 Roger B., 103; 13846 Samivel, 102.
Overweights—Kastaine, 11 pounds; Silver Tone, 3.
Serrano, place, out. Silver Tone, place, evens; show, out. Kastaine, show, 2 to 1.

RACING FORM'S SELECTIONS.

DAILY RACING FORM has no private information. It seeks none. Its calculations over the horses as they are grouped daily at various racetracks are purely those of general performance and ability as shown by the records and the application and knowledge of its editors and the reports of its correspondents. These calculations are printed daily. Nothing is hidden. All that the staff of the paper knows is put into type. If the selections made nightly are sought by persons outside the daily delivery lines of the paper they will be sent by Western Union night rate messages (collect) at $5 per track per week. Such service is not solicited, but if it is considered valuable, will be performed.

THE AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL.

The American Sporting Manual of 1898 is on general sale. It is a record of the turf, silliards, pugilism, trotting, pacing and all the leading lines of sport up to January 1, 1899. All the matter within its pages have been compiled and edited by experts. It prints a list of all the turf and track records (by DAILY RACING FORM's staff), billiard figures, past and present (by John Thatcher), the fights of 1898, with comments (by George Siller) harness records to date and of the past (by John Hervey, the statistician of The Horse Review) and three handicap tables, with directions for their application and expert comment. The Manual, in paper covers, sells at 30 cents and in soft morocco covers at 50 cents.

PEDIGREE BLANKS.

On linen paper, artistically edged in colors, ruled and arranged for six generations of sires and dams of individuals and their ancestor. Ten cents each, $1.00 per dozen, $3.50 per hundred. No owner of a stallion should be without a supply.

Winner—B. c, by Bramble—III Wind. Post 16 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Ben Bramble was best suited by the going and was well ridden. Gold Standard ran away before the start and raced in the heavy going along the rail. Grantor ran well from a poor start and seems promising. Frank Fellows was nearly knocked down at the half mile post. Be True ran a bad race. Scratched—13818 Lena Van, 107; 12645 Sadie Artha, 107. Overweights—Gold Standard, 4 pounds. Ben Bramble, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Gold Standard, place, 8 to 1; show, 4 to 1. Grantor, place, 30 to 1; show, 12 to 1. Tolstoi, place, 3 to 2; show, 4 to 5. Winner—Ch. g, by Sanford—George M. Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Rush Fields was at his best in the going. Mitchell appeared to have the race won when he went lame in his left fore leg and was eased up. School Girl ran a good race under vigorous handling. She got off badly and had to run around her horses. Czarowitz had no excuses. Pinchle is not partial to weight. Scratched—13768 Eight Bells, 107; 13787 Flora G., 107; 13731 Siddubia, 109; 13660 Garnet Beech, 109; 13694 Almonte, 109; 13816 Hill Billy, 111; 13870 Wild Tartar, 111. Rush Fields, place, 8 to 5; show, 3 to 5. School Girl, place, 3 to 1; show, evens. Czarowitz, place, 9 to 10; show, 3 to 5. Mitchell, place, 2 to 5; show, 1 to 4.

Time. 314.574. 1:25+ 1:54+.

Winner—B. h, by Ben Ali—Shasta. Post 7 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Osric II was favored by the soft going and ran to his best form. He was waited with and closed fast through the stretch. Guide Rock was none too well ridden. Etholin was shut off in the stable turn. There was no fast pace to the race, which accounts for Her Favor and The Brewer being prominent during the early stages. Scratched—(13871) Sir Joseph Lister, 109. Osric II, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Guide Rock, place, 1 to 3; show, out. Etholin, place, 7 to 10; show, 1 to 3.

Winner—Br. m, by Faverdale—Sweet Home. Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Fireside was best to-day. She liked the going and closed stoutly through the stretch. Tulla Fonso is not at her best and ran a poor race. Apple Jack showed some speed but received a hard race Saturday and could not repeat so soon. Banish improved considerably. His owner says the colt was blinded with mud Saturday. Overweights—Apple Jack, 5 pounds. Fireside, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Branch, place, 9 to 10; show, out. Tulla Fonso, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Apple Jack, place, 4 to 5; show, out.

Winner—B. f, by Top Gallant—Miss Courtney. Post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Duke of Baden could not negotiate the going. He labored in it and tired badly at the end. Ida Ledford ran a corking race, set the pace all the way and staved off Moralists' rush at the end. Moralist was well handled and had no excuses. Scratched—13790 Duke Farrell, 112. Ida Ledford, place, 7 to 10. Moralist, place, 7 to 10. Duke of Baden, place, out.

Winner—Br. c, by Jim Gore—Malva K. Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Duke of Melbourne was the best and finished gamely under strong handling. Marie G. Brown's race was a decided improvement over her performance of Saturday. John Halsey tired in the going. The others were in their own way. Scratched—13874 Two Slipper, 103; 13897 Gusto, 116; (13730) Lampwick, 111. Duke of Melbourne, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Marie G. Brown, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. John Halsey, place, out.
